Dear Equestrian,

Give Us Eight Weeks,
Receive Certified Professional Groom Training,
Begin Your Paid Career with Horses!

Feedback Leads to a Condensed Certificate Program!

The rigorously revised Professional Groom Training Certificate program is now a total of eight weeks long: six weeks of classroom and practical training followed by a two week internship. The hands-on curriculum will cover all aspects of equine management. The program's curriculum, developed in conjunction with many professionals including Olympic riders, veterinarians, farriers, professional grooms, and more, is affiliated with the Professional Riders Organization (PRO).

Shown above are: Siglo, Claudia Sadler, Sam Henley, Chesney and Rachel Petty. Sam, the lead instructor for EMTC, stated, "We are up and running with our first session and things are going very smoothly. I am impressed every day by these girls. They are eager to learn and quick to improve."

Claudia offered, "The equine management training program at Sandy River Equestrian Center has been one of the best experiences ever. Here I've been surrounded by some of the best people and equine professionals. The hands on demonstrations and specialized attention make Sandy River one of the best learning environments possible. We get to use all of the best products and learn all of Sam's tips and tricks to be a successful groom."

"EMTC is a fantastic program for any groom wanting to advance their horse knowledge and expertise," shared Rachel.

EMTC Goes to Tryon, Present Two Clinics at the American Eventing Championships

Generous Donation Honors Emma Ford, Funds Scholarships!

Caroline Moran has made a generous donation to the Equine Management Training Center in honor of Emma Ford, co-author of World Class Grooming for Horses. The funds will be used to offer $500 scholarships to 10 students of the Professional Groom Training Certificate Program. Each student will receive a complimentary copy of Emma Ford and Cat Hill's remarkable book.

"It is our mission to help elevate the level of care and understanding that all horses experience, no matter what discipline they are involved in. We hope that though our book, clinics and training to teach that hard work, patience, and time will strengthen the relationship between each horse and his or her caretaker." - Emma Ford and Cat Hill
